An incredible effort, the 2007 Chateauneuf du Pape (100% Grenache) possesses a fabulous bouquet of kirsch liqueur, lavender, licorice, pepper, and spice. It reveals gobs of rich fruit, a full-bodied, opulent mouthfeel, terrific freshness and vibrancy (because of the vintage character), and a long finish. Drink it over the next 15+ years. Kudos to Cambie and Johnnes for fashioning such an amazing Chateauneuf du Pape. Drink it over the next 15+ years. This cuvee was made and assembled by the brilliant southern Rhone oenologist, Philippe Cambie, and one of his importers, the well-known sommelier and wine buyer for the group of Daniel Boulud restaurants, Daniel Johnnes.
