A classic effort, the 2012 Hermitage (all destemmed and from the Les Bessards, Les Greffieux and Les Plantiers lieux-dits) has lots of tapenade, earth, charcuterie and currant-like aromas and flavors. It's medium-bodied, firm and tight on the palate, with an old-school feel in its tannic structure and acidity. Give it 3-4 years and enjoy bottles through 2028. Located in tiny cellar in downtown Tain l'Hermitage, Marc Sorrel makes classic, old-school red and whites that are almost overflowing with character.
