

2014 Eric et Joel Durand • Cornas Premices

|   |  |                                  |
|---|--|----------------------------------|
| Rating:91                                    | Price ($)$38  | Drink Date2016 - 2024 |
| Reviewed by🍷 Jeb Dunnuck     | The inky-colored 2014 Cornas Premices is a perfect example of the vintage. Medium-bodied, focused and fresh, with present tannin and moderate overall depth, it has beautiful purity in its black and blue fruits, graphite, scorched earth and licorice-laced bouquet. It needs short-term cellaring and will drink well for 7-8 years. |                                  |
| Issue Date30th Dec 2016                      |  |                                  |
| Source228, The Wine Advocate | Another young, progressive estate that's turning out a bevy of rock star wines is that of Eric and Joel Durand.   |                                  |