Rating: 89
Drink 2011 - 2019
Cost: $45

The medium dark ruby-colored 2009 Chateauneuf du Pape exhibits lots of garrigue, lavender, pepper, spicy Provencal herb and kirsch notes. It is a classic, sexy/seductive, upfront Provencal wine to drink over the next 7-8 years. These wines (approximately 2,000 cases produced) are made from a blend of 65% Grenache, 20% Syrah and the rest Mourvedre and Cinsault aged primarily in stainless steel with the Syrah and Mourvedre spending time in smaller barrels and demi-muids. No known American importer.

Tasty, elegant and almost Pinot Noir-like, with notes of forest floor, herbs, black cherries and red currants, this wine is medium-weight, soft, and best drunk over its next 5-7 years of life.
