Bright red. Fresh red berry and cherry aromas are complicated by musky underbrush and tobacco. Pliant, slightly bitter cherry and redcurrant flavors gain sweetness with aeration, picking up silky tannins on the back. Nicely balanced wine, with very good finishing clarity and thrust. 89-92 points

(100% grenache from old vines) Bright red. Spicy red berries and blood orange on the slightly high-toned nose. Lively and precise, with tangy red fruit flavors and a faint hint of warmth on the back end. Blends tangy and ripe qualities smoothly like a top-notch zinfandel, finishing with good clarity and an incisive redcurrant note. (The 100%-syrah 2007 Le Chateau bottling was too dominated by oak for my taste.) 90 points
