Stephen Tanzer's International Wine Cellar, Mar/Apr 11

Ruby-red. Musky, floral-accented aromas of cherry and redcurrant, with a subtle smoky quality coming up with air. A juicy, supple and expansive midweight that offers sweet red fruit flavors and no excess fat. This strikingly elegant and precise wine shows a light touch that's highly reminiscent of pinot noir. The sweet finishing flavor of raspberry preserves lingers with impressive tenacity. I find this understated, complex style of Chateauneuf extremely interesting. 92-94 points
