Rating: 87

Drink 2014 - 2015

Cost: $14

Deeper in color, with ripe strawberry, blackberry and citrus, as well as some tinges of mint, the 2013 Costieres De Nimes Galets Rose hits the palate with a medium-bodied, lively and juicy profile. It's well-made and enjoyable, and will be versatile on the dinner table. A blend of 50% Syrah, 40% Grenache and 10% Mourvedre, drink it over the coming 6-12 months. www.mourguesdugres.com; Importer: David Bowler Wine, New York, NY; tel. (212) 807-1680
