A stunning white that has classic honeyed white peach and apricot-like notions literally soaring from the glass, the 2011 Condrieu is medium to full-bodied, rich and textured, yet never seems heavy, cumbersome or over the top. Fresh, lively and with a terrific finish, drink this beauty over the coming 2-3 years. This is another example of how great 2011 was for Condrieu. While Yves Gangloff fashions a decidedly rich, full-bodied style of white, his reds are incredibly elegant, seamless and perfumed.
