The 2010 Cotes du Rhone-Villages Laudun white exhibits abundant aromas of waxy honeysuckle, caramelized citrus and tangerine skin. Medium-bodied and fresh with plenty of fruit, it should be drunk over the next year. This long-forgotten Cotes du Rhone-Village is getting more attention from serious American importers, and these two wines are both fine, serious efforts made under the supervision of well-known oenologist Philippe Cambie.
